Environment Agency – Data User / Advisory Group Applications

Name	Job title (s) and organisation (s)

What kind of organisation can you represent?

Why do you think you can represent this organisation?

Which industries / end users would you be able to represent?

Why do you feel you would be able to represent these industries / end users?

Tell us about any relevant experience you have in the following areas:

1) Building a network of users – ran a conference, talk or meet up – including the use of social media.
2) Developed a cost/benefit analysis - researching and drawing on evidence to make a business case for action.
3) Developed a data based service either from a business/marketing or a technical perspective; put forward a business case for or got funding to develop a data based product or service; identified a market opportunity for a data based product or service.
4) Developed an app.
5) Created a business using open data or created commercial value from data/open data; supported another organisation to create commercial value out of open data; developed a credible business model on the basis of open data.
6) Used public sector data to improve transparency of the public sector.
7) Partnership working, bringing together different groups to deliver societal benefits.
8) Delivering environmental benefits using data.

9) Any other relevant experience.
Are there any other reasons why you would like to become a member?
Are you currently a member of any other organisation(s) in a similar or related field?

Please note:

- Applications will be reviewed to ensure that the group represents a spread of experience and type / size of business sectors and academia.

- Details of applications may be published and shared.

- Successful applicants will be required to complete declarations of interest form.